

Did not see box leave house (484).

Next saw Mrs. Hall about 10.00 Saturday night (484).

Saw Mrs. Hall in spare room with Mr. Hall's sister, Mrs. Bonner and Mrs Hall said "Oh Barbara, I have not seen you all day". (484-5)

Barbara knew Mrs. Mills by sight before she went to work at the Hall's. (485)

Barbara is a Presbyterian but a year after she went to the Hall's joined St. Mary's Guild at Dr. Hall's Church and was especially friendly with Minnie Clark (485).

About three years after Barbara had been a member of the church she walked into the church guild room about 7.30 one evening and saw Mrs. Mills jump from Dr. Hall's lap. (486).

Plenty of gossip in the church (487).

Mrs. Voorhees and Mrs. Bonner lunched at Mrs. Hall's on Friday and left with the little girl in the afternoon after 4.00 (487).

Never saw any letters in Dr. Hall's study or in the possession of Mrs. Hall (488).

Always a great many papers in study (489).

Di Martini came to house about three weeks after the murders and was around off and on until after the Grand Jury investigation, sometimes spending the night (489).

Talked with Di Martini along the same lines as testifying, Mrs. Hall never being present (490).

Barbara Tough-5

Mrs. Hall introduced Di Martini to Barbara (490-1).

Mrs. Hall reserved; sometimes stern (491).

While Mrs. Hall was downtown on Friday Willie came in and while in bathroom washing his hand with door open said to Barbara "She woke me out of a good sound sleep last night". Explaining that "she" was his sister (492).

Barbara never saw an automatic revolver in the house (492)

First gossip was about six years before the murder.

Very rife during the last year and half (492.3).

Barbara then related the hospital episode in which Mrs. Mills, having been taken to the hospital for an operation, and Dr. Hall being just recovering from the flu, one afternoon before the operation occurred and while Mrs. Hall was out, Dr. Hall telephoned the hospital and then took the Dodge car and went to the hospital in a snow storm to see Mrs. Mills (494)

No one told Mrs. Hall (495).

Barbara left Mrs. Hall's employ February 3, 1923 because Mrs. Hall was going to Italy (495).

Often saw Sallie Peters at the house but never saw or heard Mrs. Hall reading letters to her (495).

Peter Tinsulty the gardener three weeks before murders. (496).

His tools kept in cellar of house (496).

Other servants Louise Geist and Maria Gilda (496).

Tinsulty did not drive car. Mrs. Hall drove the Dodge and Dr. Hall drive the Case. Case was a touring car (496).
